A guitar tablature diagram for the Coda section. It consists of six horizontal lines representing guitar strings. A vertical bar is placed between the third and fourth frets. Fingering numbers are placed above the strings: fret 3 has '3', fret 2 has '2', fret 2 has '2', fret 3 has '3', fret 2 has '2', fret 2 has '2', fret 0 has '0', and fret 2 has '2'. Two dots are placed on the second string at the third fret. An arrow points from the text below to the '2' at the second fret of the second string.

Try hammering on from 0D to 2D here instead of just playing 2D

A small guitar tablature diagram showing a single fret, the 0th fret, on the first string. The number '0' is written above the string. The diagram shows the first four strings of the guitar.
